

The Italian Program in the European Studies Department,
the Circolo Italiano and the Women's Studies Department present:

Italian-Ethiopian writer

Gabriella Ghermandi

PUBLIC PERFORMANCE

In the Shadow of the Shameless Branches Laden with Bright Red Flowers.

April 28, 2007 at 4pm at the Malcolm X Library (5148 Market Street)

LECTURE

Creative Writing in the African Italian Diaspora

May 1, 2007 at 12pm at The Backdoor, Aztec Center, SDSU.

Gabriella Ghermandi was born in Addis Ababa in 1965 and moved to Italy in 1979. She lives in Bologna, her father's hometown. In 1999 she won first prize in the migrant writers' competition sponsored by the multicultural association Eks&Tra, and in 2001 she won third prize. She has published many short stories in journals and anthologies. She is one of the editors of El-Ghibli the first Italian online journal of migrant literature which she co-founded.

Please visit El-Ghibli: <http://www.el-ghibli.provincia.bologna.it/>

For more information contact Clarissa Clò at cclo@mail.sdsu.edu or visit the Italian program website at <http://italian.sdsu.edu/>

Events sponsored by NIAF, The National Italian American Foundation